INSTRUCTIONS FOR APPLICANTS

HOW TO OBTAIN FUNDING

Fill out the Prospectors Assistance Program Application forms and make sure that you include any documents that you might have that demonstrate previous prospecting activities.

Completing the application correctly will ensure quicker processing and will give your application a better chance of success. Your application requires the following forms:

Section 1; Personal details

This section also includes the documentation of your prospecting training or work experiences.

Section 2; Project description

- a. Project location – Map outline
- b. Length of proposed- the number of days you plan to spend in the field.
- c. Activity – what you are planning to do (for example – sampling, mapping, ect.)

Section 3; Project budget

Refer to the attached form and guidelines for specific budget limitations. Your budget should estimate your anticipated expenses by category. CEMB grants will be up to a maximum of 20k$; daily expenses and wages for each participating prospector in advance, and the bills after transmission of the final report.

Send your completed application form to the CEMB Geologist by mail, fax or e-mail.

NOTE: If you wish to prospect in an area in which you have already worked, you will need to demonstrate that the area is still of geological interest. You are unlikely to receive repeat funding for an area where your prospecting has failed to return interesting results.

PROCESSING WITH YOUR PROSPECTING PROJECT

If your application is accepted you will receive a Notice of Acceptance along funding advance of part your budget. You may commence work as date on your Notice of Acceptance.

You must talk to the CEMB Geologist if need to change your project description budget allocations after your application has been accepted. CEMB will ask to refund any amount paid in advance if the accepted work of your application failed to be executed.
